

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

The Indianapolis News of December 28th has a lengthy article on the Arcade Mills of that city, which establishment is managed by two enterprising Frankfort boys, Messrs. L. Harvie Blanton and Will R. Watson. It says few enterprises, if any, have marched in so short a time to so deserving a prominence. We make the following extracts from the article: "Although only three years since the original start, and only about one year since the re-building, yet the product of these mills is being dispensed by every prominent grocer in the city, and used in our first class hotels and bake shops, aggregating a home consumption 75 per cent. greater than any other make of flour. Not only so, but car loads are being shipped to the wholesale grocers and jobbers in New York City and other distant points. No wonder the farmer's wagons stand as in an army corral about these mills—driven past many a country mill to get to this. They see how it is done and desire to exchange their wheat for the best and having once tried it in their kitchens they will have none other. The Arcade mills were the first in the State to introduce the corrugated rolls for reducing grain, working a revolution in flour making scarce second to the purifier which produces the 'process' flour out of what had hitherto been refuse parts. It says the 'Crown Jewel' flour manufactured by these mills is fully named, for the brightest jewel in the manufacturers' crown is the ingredient of superior quality that enters into the product.

Remove the Penitentiary.

Editor Roundabout:
I find the following in the Southern Lumberman of Dec. 28th 1882:
"The commission appointed by the General Assembly of Tennessee, at its last session, to consider the propriety and necessity of removing the penitentiary of the State from its present location in this city and the erection of a new prison, have finished their work and have their report ready to present to the Legislature, which meets on the first Monday in next month. The commissioners have decided that the prison should be removed, but recommend no place for the new structure, leaving it to be decided by the Legislature when it convenes."
It would be well for Frankfort if her Representative, in the coming Legislature, would make some effort to have the penitentiary removed to some central point that has railroad facilities. Lexington would be a central point, and a good place for it. The penitentiary has ever been a drawback and a curse to the manufacturing interests of Frankfort. Honest labor cannot compete with convicts. The prison once away from Frankfort, industry after industry would spring up that is now kept away from here on account of coming in competition with convict labor. Will the candidates that are now in the field seeking legislative honors let the people of Frankfort know how they stand on this question? Are they for the removal, and will they leave no stone unturned until the removal is made?
If it would be healthy for Nashville to put with her penitentiary, would it not be equally so with Frankfort? There are many cities that want the Capitol, who will take the penitentiary?

Bailey's Mill.

We had a splendid Christmas tree.
Mr. Henry Rodgers has shipped his to Lacey.
Our school is doing well. Mr. Bohannon is performing his duty faithfully.
Business is in a flourishing condition down here, tobacco is looking up.
Messrs. Jas. Harrod and D. P. Bentley are the cocks of the walk in debates down here, and are not afraid to crow. We understand they got away with the Stoney Creek boys. Bentley had the closing speech and threw his shells in every direction. He improves with every speech.
Two men passed here a few days since, on their way from Frankfort to Harper's Ferry in a buggy, very much intoxicated, and insulted every one they met. They seemed to be trying to run their horse to death, and will be presented to the grand jury. One of them fell out and hurt himself very badly.
We had a bloody fist fight here, a few days since, between C. Warfield and D. Turner. They fought near Flat Creek and bled so profusely that the blood ran down into the water, and was seen floating on top of it at the mouth of the creek, and frightened many horses of persons attempting to cross.
Mr. D. P. Bentley has the reputation of having taught the best school so far that has ever been in Bald Knob. The trustees will tie a blue ribbon on his arm, the last day of his term. Mr. Jas. Harrod will open the exercises with a speech, Bentley will respond and wave his ribbon. Mr. B. has kept himself as straight as a string since he has been here.

Switzer.

Happy new year to the many readers of the ROUNDABOUT.
Mr. B. D. Head, of Monterey, paid us a flying visit this week.

Mr. Cook, of Oxford, spent several days at J. A. Carter's this week.

Miss Laura Hockensmith is visiting friends in this locality this week.

Miss Mary Merna spent the holidays with Miss Mollie Smith, at Peak's Mill.

Willie Merna, who has been quite ill for some time past, is at present much better.

Miss B. Hockensmith and Miss Emma Stone, of Frankfort, are visiting at Mrs. South's this week.

Mr. T. J. Holder and Mr. F. M. Hudson have been doing a lively business fishing, but the great trouble has been with them to find a line strong enough to hold the fish that would bite at their hooks.

The holidays were a season of great pleasure to the old and young of this neighborhood. Many nice dinners and suppers were given during the week, and a social meet every night for the young people. We would like to describe some of them, but would fail to do them justice, so will not make the attempt.

The Christmas tree at North Fork was a grand success, and we feel that we can safely say that it gladdened the hearts of many little children, who were there waiting to hear their names called, and to see what Santa Claus had put on the tree for them. While it was intended only for the children, many grown persons received very handsome presents. Several hundred dollars' worth of valuable presents were taken from the tree and given to those who were lucky enough to have kind friends to remember them.

ONCE A WEEK.

If Catarrh has destroyed your sense of smell and hearing, Hall's Catarrh Cure will cure you. 75 cents per bottle.

Stoney Creek

Editor Roundabout:

After arriving home and receiving the welcome greetings of father, mother, sister, and many friends. I felt that in justice to you myself and patrons and pupils of my school, I could not retire from their midst without giving public expression of the gratitude I felt during the whole of my stay with them and that I now feel for the many unwelcome hospitalities and comforts bestowed upon me, especially by Mr. Henry Brawner and wife and Mr. Moore and wife at whose homes I had the pleasure of living, numbered as one of the family and sharing the comfort and blessings thrown around them. While speaking of this my thoughts revert to my illness during my stay with Mr. Moore, though of short duration, seemed serious, the care and unbroken attention given me by both himself and wife was such that I am now unable to find words sufficient to express the gratitude I then and now feel for the same. But I must not dwell too long upon this and forget my pupils, who certainly share a good portion of my kindest regards. Were I to say that I had the best school in the county I do not think that I should be exaggerating. As this is my last letter from Stoney Creek I beg leave to say that I have ever used every effort that time would permit to make my communications interesting and now ask you to excuse whatever blunders I may have made, and make such correction in the present writing as you deem necessary. I now bid you adieu.

J. R. FEARS.

Truesville, Owen County.

Miss Flora Long is very ill with pneumonia.

Hogs are in great demand at five cents per pound gross.

Mr. Willard White is confined to his bed with the pneumonia.

Mr. Polk Conway spent the holidays with Mr. Johnson Conway.

Another wedding is soon to take place in this village, so says Madame Rumer.

Miss Nannie D. White, of this place, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Emma Smith.

Mr. Ballard, in walking across the floor of his room, ran a needle through his left foot.

Died.—Near this place, on Sunday December 17th, 1882, Mr. Levi Camper, aged 97 years.

Why will our citizens go to the city to buy their goods when they can obtain bargains of our home merchant?

Mr. E. M. Bramwell bought of Mr. T. C. Marker a fine grey mare for $150. He has since been offered $200 for her.

Miss Anna J. Rose, after a visit of several weeks to friends in this section, left for her home in Oakes, Missouri.

Mr. Johnson Ballard gave a party at his residence, a few evenings since, which was greatly enjoyed by the young people of this vicinity.

Married.—Near this place, on Thursday, December 21, 1882, Mr. Zach. True and Miss Lizzie Dickerson. Also Mr. Grant Smith and Miss Vic. Arnold.

37 Walker St., Baltimore, Dec. 1882.
For six years I have been a great sufferer from Blood Disease, Dyspepsia and Constipation, and became so debilitated that I could not retain anything on my stomach, in fact, life had almost become a burden. Finally, when hope had almost left me, my husband seeing Brown's Iron Bitters advertised in the paper, induced me to give it a trial. I am now taking the third bottle and have not felt so well in six years as I do at the present time.
Mrs. L. F. GRIFFIN.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will have a better tonic effect upon any one who needs "bracing up," than any medicine made.
